Community Care Worker (Casual Relief)

LONDON, ON

Posting Date: Monday, November 14, 2022

Posting ID: 096

AtlohSA Family Healing Services is seeking a motivated and dynamic individual to fill the role of a Winter Response Community Care Worker (casual relief). The primary role of the Community Care Worker will be to provide a safe, supportive environment for community members who have been experiencing homelessness. You will be responsible for communicating with other agencies, maintaining confidentiality of all participants and documents of the AtlohSA Winter Response program and will work in a fast-paced team environment. This position may require working shifts that consist of daytime, afternoon and overnight hours. Candidates must be willing and able to commit to being called in on short notice if the need shall arise.

Role and Responsibility

Using a wholistic Indigenous-led approach to principles of Harm Reduction and Housing First, the successful applicant will offer compassionate and assertive care and support to community members who may be experiencing homelessness, social stigma, mental health imbalance and substance use. The Community Care Worker will be responsible for assessment and intake of community members in need of temporary housing and must be comfortable with operating from a land-based healing model. The Community Care Worker will address and access the immediate comfort and need of individuals accessing the winter response site. This may include providing lay counselling and proactively intervening when crisis or conflict arises; which may include aggressive or disruptive in the moment behavior due to substance use and or mental health challenges. The Community Care Worker will liaison with other social service agencies, record accurate and detailed shift notes and must be able to provide clear, concise objective communication regarding community members being supported in Winter Response Temporary housing. The Community Care Worker will work to ensure that AtlohSA Family Healing Services is a safe space for all community members accessing services and programming by referring community members to more appropriate locations if the need shall arise.
